

Backyard Concept Plan, A2.

The concept design includes measurements, quantity take offs and concept plant material with a legend. The legend will provide information to your local nursery for plant material selection in your planting zone. This plan provides a template which will help you produce or compare estimates accurately and build efficiently.